RAIL LABOR BOARD NOT TO REOPEN CASE

WAGE AWARD TO BE SUBMITTED TO REFERENDUM

Representatives Of Unions
Divided Over Question
Of Acceptance.

MEN ARE DISSATISFIED

First Reported Strike In Connection With Award
In Chicago.

Chicago, July 22.—It appears certain that the brotherhood leaders will submit the $600,000,000 rail wage award to a referendum vote by the 1,500,000 railroad workers, without recommendation either for its acceptance or rejection.

This was the opinion in labor circles following rejection by the United States railway labor board of a petition for a rehearing of the case.

More conservative counsel in the union ranks has steadfastly opposed outright rejection of the labor board's decision. The door to recommendation of adoption apparently was closed, leaders of the rail workers intimated, when they requested that the case be reopened, and the board refused to accede. After asking for a rehearing it appeared doubtful that the union leaders could consistently recommend acceptance of the award, as their action indicated it was unsatisfactory to them. The only course left open, therefore, would be to pass the board's decision, along to the men and rely on their referendum.

The labor board declined to reopen the case on the ground that its decision represented the conclusions reached after an exhaustive survey, in which both sides had been given ample time to present all facts surrounding the case.

Conference Futile.

A day of conferences between presidents of the 18 unions recognized in the award and 1,000 general chairmen of those organizations failed to develop any common ground on which the leaders were willing to issue a statement.

The first reported strike was recorded in Chicago, when about 100 Grand Trunk railroad employees walked out, according to company estimates. Strikers, however, say 900 men figured in the walkout. Company officers said no demands had been presented and that it was presumed the men were dissatisfied with the rail board decision. From a few cities came reports that the men had voted to reject the award and stand on their original demands.

The decision to be made by the brotherhood officers may have an important effect on the future of their organizations. It is no secret that for months there has been dissension within the ranks and an outspoken dissatisfaction over the failure of the union officers to obtain for their men the raises demanded. It was this dissatisfaction which culminated in the sporadic strikes in April. Men who joined the new unions and walked out insisted they were tired of the policy pursued by the "labor politicians" and that they wanted a "new deal."

WARRANTS TOTALING OVER $56,000 ARE BEING DISTRIBUTED

Columbus, O., July 22.—Warrants totaling $56,022.24 were ready today for distribution to 115 city and general health districts as their first state subsidies under the Hughes-Griswold law. The checks are being mailed out by the state health department to city and county treasurers. They cover the six months ended June 30. Forty-five additional checks are to be mailed.

The state subsidy amounts to one-half the total of salaries paid by the health district to the health commissioner, one public health nurse and one clerk, with $1,000 as the maximum payment for any six months period.

Five general districts and nine cities among the 115 districts included in the first payment received the maximum subsidy for the past six months. They are: Allen, Auglaize, Hamilton, Mahoning and Montgomery county general districts and the cities of Akron, Canton, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Dayton, Lorain, Middletown, Springfield, and Youngstown. The general districts received larger subsidies in general than the cities.

A. F. O. L. ACQUAINTS MEMBERSHIP WITH NOMINEES' RECORDS

Positions Of Harding and
Cox To Be Given Publicity.

Columbus, O., July 22.—The campaign of the American Federation of Labor to acquaint its membership with the labor records of presidential candidates Harding and Cox is in full swing.

Tonight, in thousands of local chapters of affiliated unions throughout the United States, secretaries will read a formal announcement from national headquarters that the federation has prepared a comprehensive resume of the stand taken by the candidates on labor questions which have come before them.

This record, the announcement states, will cover the entire public career of the candidates and will set forth not only their vote on legislation dealing with labor, but also their public utterances and the editorial policy of their newspapers.

Copies of the announcement have been distributed from Maine to California, and as many local unions meet on different days, it is estimated that a week will elapse before it can be brought to the attention of the entire federation membership.

Within ten days after the announcement is read, the record itself is expected to be in the hands of local secretaries. At a later date the statement says, similar records dealing with senators and congressional candidates will be distributed.

The greater part of the information contained in the resume of the attitude of Senator Harding and Governor Cox toward labor was furnished by the Ohio state federation of labor. Long before the Chicago convention it was stated at federation headquarters today, a force of clerks began putting material into shape, and the complete data was forwarded to Washington shortly after the nomination.

HEADLINERS DRAW WELL ON CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAMS IN XENIA

The crowd that packed the Redpath Chautauqua tent Wednesday night gave oral testimony following the program, to the excellent offerings afforded for the second night of the event.

Adrian M. Newens, who headlined the evening program is a monologist of note, who held his audience spell-bound and deserved the ample applause he received. Mr. Newens is a reader and his presentation of the play "To Him that Hath" deserves special commendation, as his portrayal of the piece carried extraordinary character impersonations.

The three charming young girls who make up the Musical Arts Trio represented an exceedingly refreshing musical program to the audience, both afternoon and evening, that was well received on both occasions. In the trio were Mucille Collette, graduate of violin and piano in the Paris Conservatory; Mary Selter, New York harpist and Gladys Pettit Bumstead, lyric soprano and composer.

Detective Harry J. Loose, with his enthralling tales of detective work and the criminal world, his interesting exhibition of the tools of crime and his timely lesson to avoid the byways of crime, was well received Thursday afternoon. On the evening program is the Great Lakes String Quartette, a musical organization of former sailors, who interpret all varieties of modern and ancient music on the strings of their instruments.

Friday afternoon the New York Opera Singers will present their program and they will repeat Friday night preliminary to the lecture of Sir John Foster Fraser. The opera company is composed of Ethel Hague Rea, soprano, Amelia Donovan, contralto; William Tucker, bass baritone and Thomas McGranahan, tenor. Their offering is rated as the best vocal program on the Chautauqua menu as all members have had professional experience.

COUNTY PHYSICIANS

Physicians of Greene and Clark counties enjoyed a joint picnic at Bryan Park, Yellow Springs Wednesday afternoon.

Wives and children of the physicians also attended the affair, the women preparing the picnic lunch and making lemonade. Preceding the lunch, a baseball team representing the Clark county physicians defeated the team representing the Greene county physicians.

QUAFFS FROM THE CUP OF VICTORY.

Sir Thomas Lipton, aboard his yacht Victoria, after his challenge, the Shamrock IV, crossed the finish line a winner of the first race. Sir Thomas was insistent that race should not count because of the mishap to Resolute but American yachtsmen said that the accident was a part of the game, so the Shamrock must be credited with a win. Sir Thomas is shown standing beside a huge wreath of flowers presented to him upon the victory of his yacht.

INCREASE PASSENGER RATES HALF CENT, PLAN

basis For Raising One Third Of Increased Revenues
For Railroad To Meet Wage Awards Announced.

Washington, July 22.—An increase in passenger rates of one-half cent per mile throughout the country appeared to be the basis for raising one-third of the increased revenues for the railroads to meet increased wage awards, when the rate committee of the railroad executives association resumed sessions here today.

The increase of one-half cent per mile will raise $200,000,000 and an additional increase of 8 or 9 per cent on freight rates will net another $300,000,000. The committee has been unable to agree on the means of raising the remaining $100,000,000 needed to meet the $600,000,000 wage increase granted the employees by the railroad labor board.

THREE KILLED IN RENEWAL OF FIGHTING BETWEEN SINN FEINERS AND UNIONISTS

BOLSHEVIK CAVALRY ADVANCE WITHIN 50 MILES OF FRONTIER

Red Army Being Recruited
In East Prussia,
Report.

Berlin, July 22.—Russian bolshevik cavalry on the northern end of the Russo-Polish battle front has advanced within 50 miles of the old German frontier, according to news from Koenigsberg today.

A red army is being recruited in east Prussia, it is reported from the same source. Bolsheviki agents have been active among Prussian farm laborers urging them to join the Russian troops when the latter reach the German border.

The Russian army which occupied Vlna is moving in a southwesterly direction and has taken Grodno a fortress city on the Warsaw-Petrograd railway. The Russians are advancing along this railroad in the direction of Bielsostok.

ASK ALLIED HELP.

London, July 22.—If the reports of the capture of Bielsostok by the Russians are officially confirmed the Poles are expected to ask the allies for an army of 15,000 cavalrymen to take the field against the bolsheviks, it was learned from an authoritative source this afternoon. Bielsostok is 109 miles northeast of Warsaw. Unofficial reports that Russian cavalry had reached the city were received here last night.

MANY ARE SEIZED IN PLOT TO OPEN REVOLT

Constantinople, July 22.—Wholesale arrests were made here in connection with an alleged plot to promote a general uprising of moslems against foreign occupation.

Quiet Restored at Noon; Fifty Four Arrests Made In Belfast.

London, July 22.—Three more persons were killed today in a renewal of fighting between Sinn Feiners and unionists at Belfast, according to a dispatch from that city.

The trouble has spread from the Sinn Fein section into the Orange quarter of the city. Firing was in progress during this morning. The trouble began yesterday with a clash between Sinn Fein and unionist workmen which made it necessary to rush troop reinforcements. Number of wounded at 40. Fifty-four and 30 wounded early in the night when troops fired upon a mob, according to an earlier dispatch from Belfast.

A dispatch from Belfast at noon said that quiet had been restored. A revised list of casualties put the number of wounded at 40. Fifty four arrests were made in Belfast. One woman was killed while carrying a baby in her arms. She was enroute to a hospital where the baby's mother was dying.

The streets of Belfast are being patrolled by troops from Holyrood and Newtown. Another outbreak of fighting is feared tonight. Trouble between Sinn Feiners and unionists at the Belfast shipyards was averted by the fact that many workmen failed to appear for work.

A deputation of trade unionists called at No. 10 Downing street to discuss the Irish situation with Premier Lloyd George.

There have been many developments of varying degrees of importance in Ireland during the past 24 hours.

The police broke up a meeting of a Sinn Fein committee that was sitting at Carrick on Shannon to investigate the industrial resources of the counties of Leitrim and Roscommon. Colonel Wells, chairman of the Roscommon county council and Darrell Figgis were arrested.

A train that was carrying food to the British troops at Dungloe was halted by masked men and the food stores destroyed.

HARDING PLEDGES REPUBLICAN PARTY TO EARLY PEACE IN HIS ACCEPTANCE SPEECH AT MARION

BRYAN IS NAMED BY PROHIBITION BY ACCLAMATION

National Convention Ignores Protest Of Commoner.

MAY NOT ACCEPT

Woman Chosen Permanent
Chairman First Time
In History.

Lincoln, Neb., July 22.—The Prohibition national convention nominated William Jennings Bryan by acclamation as the party's presidential candidate.

Bryan's nomination came after a resolution "tendering" him the position of standard bearer had brought out the fact in debate that he had telegraphed friends here that he "could not accept."

C. N. Howard, a New York delegate, read the following telegram from W. J. Bryan: "I appreciate your confidence in me. Please see my brother, C. W. Bryan. He will fully explain why acceptance is impossible."

The telegram was in reply to one Mr. Howard sent to Mr. Bryan asking if he would accept the nomination.

A letter from Charles W. Bryan then was read to the convention asking that his name not be mentioned in connection with the nomination, and the Calderwood resolution calling for Bryan's nomination by acclamation should not be passed.

An attempt to table the Calderwood motion was overwhelmingly defeated. Delegates shouted that they were "not interested in Charles Bryan, but in William Bryan."

For the first time in the history of national politics a woman was chosen permanent chairman of a national convention. Miss Marie C. Brehm of Long Beach, Cal., was given that honor by the Prohibitionists. Later Miss Brehm relinquished the chair and placed Bryan in actual nomination, declaring he "must not be merely tendered the nomination, but actually given it."

Other permanent officers chosen were: James G. Mason, New Jersey, assistant chairman; E. L. Hohenblatt, Connecticut, secretary; Miss Minnette Murphy, Iowa, assistant secretary; W. G. Calderwood, Minneapolis, Minn., reading clerk; Neal Dow Crammer, New York, sergeant-at-arms; Lucy Page Gaston, Chicago, assistant sergeant-at-arms.

SENATOR HARDING ENLISTS IN FIGHT FOR EQUAL VOTING

Urges Ratification Of Amendment In Tennessee.

Marion, O., July 22.—Senator Harding enlisted in the fight for the woman suffrage amendment last night, when he declared he was ready to throw the weight of his influence for ratification in time for all women to vote in November.

The announcement followed a call by representatives of the National Woman Suffrage association, and took the form of a telegram to Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, head of the association, at Nashville, Tenn. "I am exceedingly glad to learn," the telegram said, "that you are in Tennessee seeking to consummate the ratification of the equal suffrage amendment. If any of the Republican members of the Tennessee assembly should ask my opinion as to their course, I would cordially recommend an immediate favorable action."

In presenting their plea and obtaining results, the association's representatives stole a march on a delegation of the National Woman's party who had arranged for an engagement to see Senator Harding today.

BOY KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE

Bellefontaine, July 22.—Going on an errand with an older brother, Leonard, 4-year-old son of Thomas Bell, was struck by an automobile and killed.

before Thousands Of Spectators at Garfield Park, Senator Outlines Policies Of Republicanism In Ringing Address Following Formal Notification.

URGES IMMEDIATE RATIFICATION OF SUFFRAGE

Thousands Throng Marion to View Exercises; Nominee States He Will Be "Constitutional President" if Elected; Against Government Ownership.

Principal Points Of Harding's Keynote Speech

League of Nations—Pledges Republican party to early to be followed with an association of nations for international justice. Repudiates President Wilson's league in its entirety.

Prohibition—Holds out little hope for "wets." Warns that if elected he will be a "constitutional president" and rigidly enforce prohibition legislation now on the statutes.

Suffrage—Urges immediate ratification and operation of the federal suffrage amendment.

Labor and Capital—Warns labor that it must give a full day's work for a full day's pay, and warns capital that it must be more sympathetic with aspirations of the workers.

Railroads—Reiterates Republican opposition to the policy of government ownership.

Marion, O., July 22.—Senator Warren G. Harding was formally notified this afternoon of his nomination for the presidency by the recent Republican national convention.

With thousands of political admirers grouped about the speaker's stand in Garfield park, the senator accepted the leadership of the Republican hosts, "pledging his fidelity to the country and to God."

Senator Lodge, chairman of the notification committee, formally notified the senator of his nomination and the Republican candidate replied with a speech of acceptance in which he defined his party's attitude on problems now confronting the nation. Members of the Republican national committee and the Republican convention's notification committee and prominent leaders from all parts of the country witnessed the day's ceremonies.

Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, presided at the notification. There were no addresses except those of Senator Lodge and the Republican nominee. Bishop William F. Oldham of the Methodist Episcopal church delivered the invocation and Rev. Father Joseph M. Denning of St. Mary's Catholic church the benediction.

The Columbus Republican Glee club opened the exercises at Garfield park, singing "America." It furnished the only music at the park, but a dozen bands or more filled Marion with stirring airs during the day.

All counties in the state sent delegations to the notification and the town is filled to overflowing.

Senator Harding's Speech.

Senator Harding in his speech of acceptance declared that the Republican party means to hold the heritage of American nationality "unimpaired and unsundered." He advocated party responsibility as distinguished from "dictatorial and autocratic personal rule." In referring to the league of nations he stated "we do not mean to shun a single responsibility of this republic to world civilization."

The Republican nominee said he favored a budget system, a merchant marine, a small army, protective tariff and standards for immigration. He promised the prevention of unreasonable profits; that profiteering would be challenged "with all the moral and legal powers of government and people." He declared he stood for collective bargaining in industry and for the encouragement of co-operative associations among farmers.

He promised "formal and effective peace so quickly as a Republican congress can pass its declaration for a Republican executive to sign."

The senator declared against government ownership of transportation. "Gross expansion of currency and credits has depreciated the dollar," he said. "We will attempt intelligent and courageous deflation."

Referring to the league of nations covenant, the speaker upheld the action of the senate, saying: "It is better to be the free and disinterested agent of international justice and advancing civilization, with the covenant of conscience, than be shackled by a written compact which surrenders our freedom of action and gives to a military alliance the right to proclaim America's duty to the world. No surrender of rights to a world council, or its military alliance, no assumed mandatory, however appealing, ever shall summon the sons of this republic to war. Their supreme sacrifice shall only be asked for America and its call of honor. There is a sanctity in that right we will not delegate."

Saying he believed in party sponsorship in government, Senator Harding stated: "No man is big enough to run this great republic. There never has been one. Our first commitment is the restoration of representative popular government, under the constitution, through the agency of the Republican party. Our vision includes more than a chief executive. We believe in a cabinet of highest capacity, equal to the responsibilities which our system contemplates, in whose councils the vice president, second official of the republic, shall be asked to participate. The same vision includes a cordial understanding and co-ordinated activities with a house of congress."

HURT IN FALL ON TRACK MARE IMPROVES

Frances D., the mare owned by J. W. Faulkner, injured at the Rockport meet last week when she fell down in the track, is improving fast but will not be able to start this week, according to word received by Mr. Faulkner from Frank Hedrick, who is handling the local speeder this year.

The mare was second in a field of eight horses when three of them fell, and she was injured and had to be withdrawn. She was placed by the judges seventh in the first heat, fourth in the second heat and fifth in the third heat.

According to Mr. Hedrick he will take his stable including Frances D. to North Randall and lay up for that meeting and then ship to Springfield. He believes that the mare will recover faster on the mile track as it will not double her up around the turns. The soreness is in her back. Local race fans are hoping that the Xenia owned horse will recover and get back into the game shortly.

How Many Women Are Like This?

Can anything be more wearing for women than the ceaseless round of household duties? Oh! the monotony of it all—work and drudge; no time to be sick; tired, ailing, yet cannot stop. There comes a time when something "snaps" and they find themselves "simply worn out," and to make matters worse, have contracted serious feminine disorder which almost always follows the constant overtaxing of a woman's strength.

Then they should remember that there is no remedy like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—the experience of these two women establishes that fact:

Cedar Rapids, Ia.—"After the birth of my last child I had such painful spells that would unfit me entirely for my household. I suffered for months and the doctor said that my trouble was organic and I would have to have an operation. That was an awful thing to me, with a young baby and four other children, so one day I thought of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and how it had helped me years before and I decided to try it again. I took five bottles of Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and since then I have been a well woman, able to take care of my house and family without any trouble or a day's pain. I am ready and thankful to swear by your medicine any time. I am forty-four years old and have not had a day's illness of any kind for three years."

Sandusky, Ohio.—"After the birth of my baby I had organic trouble. My doctor said it was caused by too heavy lifting and I would have to have an operation. I would not consent to an operation and let it go for over a year, having my sister do my work for me as I was not able to walk. One day my aunt came to see me and told me about your medicine—said it cured her of the same thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and they have cured me. Now I do my own household work, washing and ironing and sewing for my family and also do sewing for other people. I still take a bottle of Vegetable Compound every spring for a tonic. I recommend your medicine to others who have troubles similar to mine and you can use my letter if you wish."

SAYS HIS PRESCRIPTION HAS POWERFUL INFLUENCE OVER RHEUMATISM

Mr. James H. Allen who suffered for many years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work. He finally decided after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body. With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system. He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Sayre & Hemphill have been appointed agents for Allenhu in this vicinity with the understanding that they will freely return the purchase money to all who state they received no benefit.

Beauty Chats BRINGING UP FATHER"

by George McManus

The difference between a beautiful woman and one who is merely ordinary, is often only a matter of details. The woman whose skirt is too tight will have a bad figure; the one who wears a correctly cut dress will have a good figure. The woman with a corset worn out of shape, will look lumpy and queer; the woman who is corseted well, will look trim.

It is never a matter of expense—it is simply care and forethought. One girl, for instance, wrote to me that her figure was "dumpy" and could not be dressed well because she could not afford expensive corsets! Well, of course, cheap corsets do not wear and never are as nice in shape as those costing large sums of money—but why should a woman necessarily wear corsets at all? If she keeps her figure slender and well knit with exercise, and if she holds herself well, correctly, she will not need them at all.

It is much the same with dressing. Of course the high priced clothes will be cleverly cut to set off the figure—but if you choose the cheaper dresses carefully, you can avoid many possible faults. If the material is scanty, as it is apt to be when styles call for tight clothing, then by buying a size or two larger you can get the effect of easy draping which distinguishes high priced clothing. Of course, you may have to do some alteration yourself, but that is necessary in most cases anyway. Of course, if you are a dressmaker, or if you are fortunate enough to be your own dressmaker, then your efforts will be as clever and artistic as you can wish.

Mrs. A. G. S.—Clip the ends of the hair every six weeks, or every other time you shampoo your scalp. This will prevent splitting and breaking. The first time, cut off quite a bit from each end. The broken ends usually mean that the hair is too dry; therefore, liberal massages with oil, before the shampoo, are to be advised.

Patience—The lumps under the skin are the same as pimples. Some time they will break through and the matter contained in them will be let out through the skin. Probably you have been constipated, or else your digestion is not in very good condition. A few weeks of dieting is probably all you need.

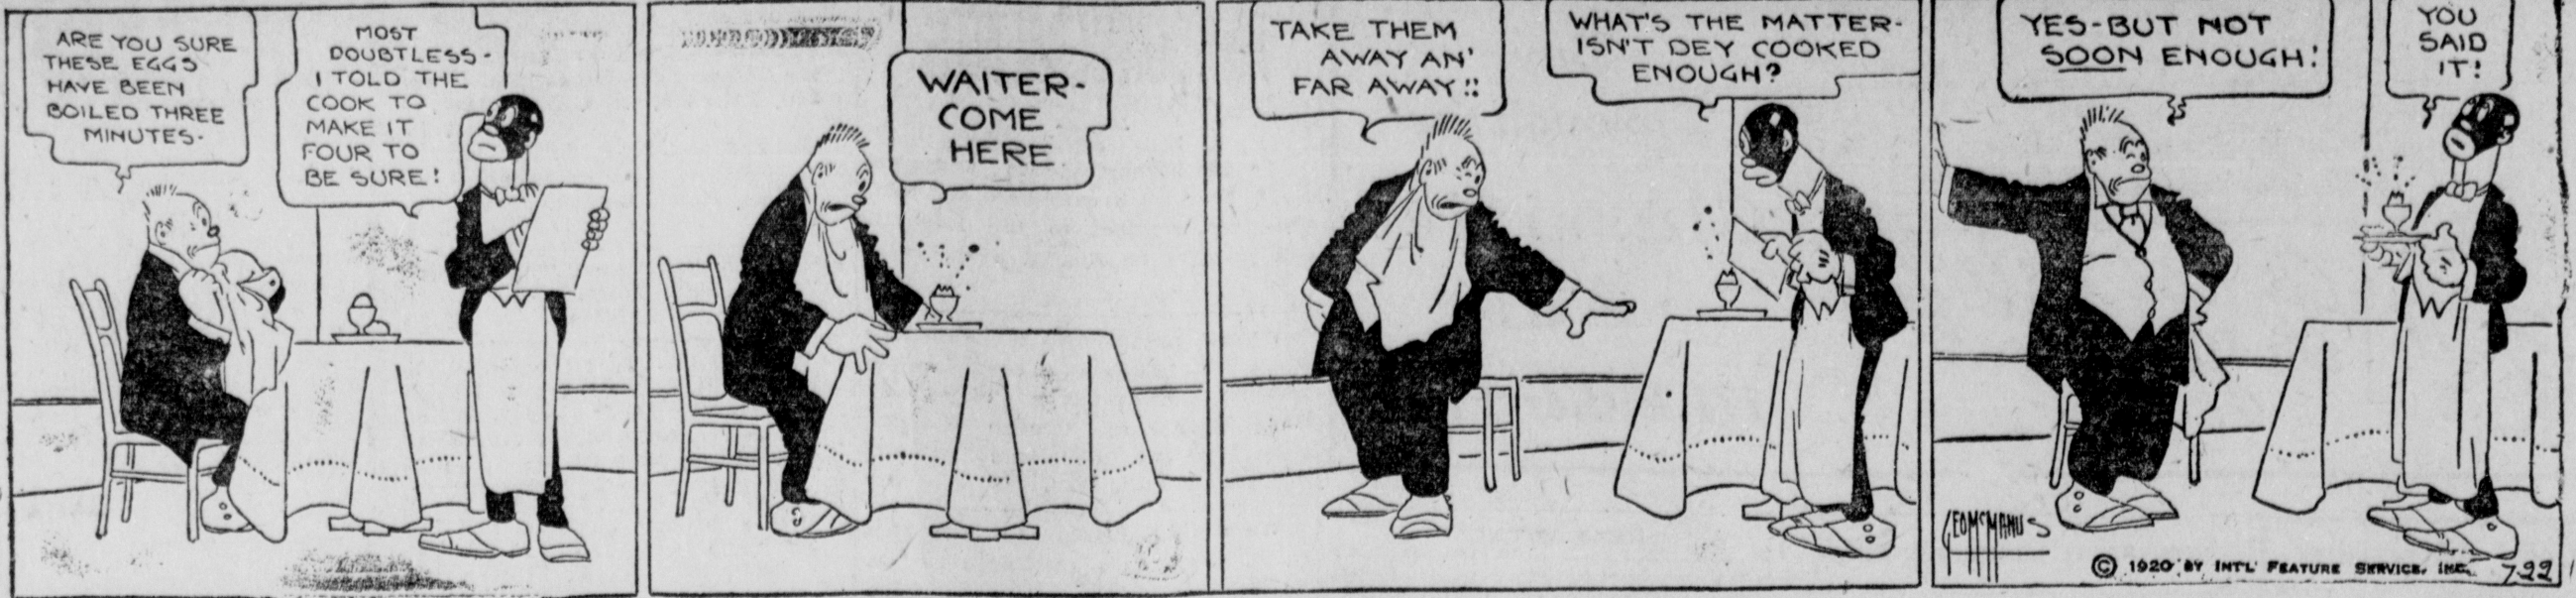

X. Y. Z.—A dark eyed girl with curly black hair, can find any number of becoming styles of hair dressing. How about parting the hair in the middle, smoothing it to each side, then fluffing it out softly over the ears and cheeks? Make a knot in back—and when you want to dress up, stick a large Spanish comb through the knot. If you want a hair tonic, send me a letter with a self-addressed, stamped envelope for my formula for an excellent one.

BOY KILLED BY DYNAMITE

Lancaster, Ohio, July 22.—Dee Huffered, 12 years old son of the late A. Huffered, Cashier of the Bremen First National Bank, died at a hospital here of wounds received last evening while he was playing with matches and dynamite caps carried in his trouser pocket. The boy's right leg was torn off, one eye was blown out and he was mangled otherwise.

ONLY ONE BID MADE FOR FLEET OF TUGS.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

In a book I pressed a flower. Now it's stiff and brown with age. But its fragrant soul still lingers in the poem on that page.

COULD NOT WORK FOR TWO MONTHS HAD RHEUMATISM

Marion man crippled up in his joints and muscles, sore and drawn; his suffering was terrible.

Draco did him so much good that he got a bottle for a friend of his.

"I was in such bad shape from rheumatism that I had to stop work about November first and laid off for two solid months, unable to go back on the job," says Mr. Albert Powell, who resides on East Center street, Marion, O.

"The rheumatism was all over my body, in every joint and muscle, I believe. My muscles were sore and hard and felt like they were drawn up. My joints ached and seemed like they were dry; every move caused intense pain and I couldn't sleep from the suffering."

"I was in such bad shape that something had to be done, so I began taking Draco, as it was spoken of so highly. I want these words published for the benefit of other sufferers. After being away from work two months, two bottles of Draco did me so much good that I am again on the job every day, and my rheumatism is gone. I am getting a bottle of this grand medicine to take to a friend, who is in bad shape with rheumatism, and I feel sure it will overcome his troubles, just as it did mine."

All good druggists now sell Draco and it is highly recommended in Xenia by Sohn's Drug Store.

ADES FOR HOT DAYS.
Orangeade—Two cupsful sugar, three-quarter cupful orange juice, one quart water, one-quarter cupful lemon juice.

Boil the sugar and water ten minutes with the orange rinds. Remove the rinds, chill the syrup, add the fruit juices and dilute to taste. Serve very cold with a bit of orange or mint as a garnish. This makes ten small glasses.

Rhubarbade—One pound diced rhubarb, one-half cupful sugar, one cupful water, bit of ginger root, juice of one orange, juice of two lemons, one quart ice water.

Bake the first four ingredients till the rhubarb is soft and pink. Strain, add the fruit juices and ice water, chill and serve. This makes from twelve to sixteen small glasses.

Raspberry or Loganberry Ade—One quart can of home-preserved raspberries or loganberries, juice of two lemons, one cupful sugar, two cupfuls water, ice water.

Boil together the sugar and water for ten minutes. Cool, add the raspberries, which should be quite liquid, turn in the lemon juice and let stand two hours to ripen. Dilute with ice water to desired strength and serve with water to be added depends upon the richness of the fruit. Usually this amount will make sixteen to twenty small glasses.

MINER'S BODY RECOVERED
Pittsburg, Penn., July 22.—The body of another victim of Monday's explosion in a coal mine at Renton, 18 miles from here, was recovered by one of the rescue teams that are exploring the wrecked mine. One body was brought out yesterday. The search was continued for the bodies of seven men who have not been accounted for.

SHIP RECORD PLAN FAILS
Philadelphia, July 22.—Efforts to establish a world's record by launching seven ships in 50 minutes at the Hog Island Shipyard were spoiled late today when the first vessel, the Vaba, stuck on the ways. When every effort to release the ship failed the launching crews moved to the other vessels which easily slipped into the Delaware.

CANNING TIME.
Syrups for Canning—In the directions given for canning various grades of syrup are mentioned. These syrups are made as follows:
Thin: One part sugar to four parts water.
Medium: One part sugar to two parts water.
Thick: One part sugar to one part water.

Heat the water to boiling, then add the sugar gradually, stirring constantly and keeping the liquid boiling until the liquid is dissolved. Syrup made in this way requires little or no skimming.

Use thin syrup with sweet fruits. Use medium syrup with sweet fruits. Thick syrup is used in candying and preserving.

Because of the shortage of sugar it is important to use substitutes whenever possible. A very satisfactory syrup for fruits may be made of one part of light corn syrup or honey to three parts of water or juice of the fruit. Add the honey or corn syrup to the liquid and simmer ten minutes.

Allow two cupfuls of syrup to each quart of fruit.

There are several other methods of preserving cherries in addition to the canning method. Two of these are given below:

Cherry Jam—Stone the cherries, remove the stems and wash. Place in preserving kettle with a similar quantity of sugar and let stand over night. Then loil until a spoonful removed from the kettle jellies on a moistened plate.

Cherry Syrup—Remove stones from the ripe cherries and pound half the stones until crushed. These are mixed with the cherries to give it additional flavor. Squeeze the cherries in a bag until all the juice is extracted. For every quart of cherry juice allow two cups of sugar, boil for ten minutes and skim. Cool slightly, pour in bottles and seal.

DEMANDS RELEASE

Denver, Colo., July 21.—Parley Parker Christensen, farm labor party candidate for president, today telegraphed an appeal to Senator Harding and Governor Cox to join him in demanding that President Wilson immediately release Eugene V. Debs, socialist candidate for the presidency form the federal prison at Atlanta.

ZENA TRIES PAWNING

Chapter 69
The sign of the three balls in front of a dingy shop down the street was my destination when, an hour after Mary left me, I started out to raise money so that I might live until I found something to do.

I walked rapidly, my cheeks burning like fire. I went past the shop, around the block, then by again before I could summon up courage to go in. Then when the man behind the counter found I didn't want to buy but had something to sell, or upon which I wanted to raise money, he sent me out into the street again, telling me to go to the entrance marked for such as me.

I felt an almost insane desire to run back to the boarding house, to put as great a distance as possible between myself and that shop with the hard faced man who had spoken so roughly to me. But I forced myself to walk calmly around to the designated entrance, first looking up and down the street to be sure no one saw me.

I found myself in a tiny cubby-hole sort of place with a small table and a chair. Upon opening the door to this cubby-hole a bell had tinkled and before I had time to wonder what it meant a man was asking what I wanted.

"I want to pawn this," I stammered, as I held up the ring.

"How much do you want?" It was the same hook-nosed man I had spoken to out in front and his harsh voice took away all my courage.

"All you will let me have."

"JUST A GIRL"

BY JANE PHELPS

"Tell me how much you want and I'll see if I can let you have it," he insisted.

"Can I have $30? It cost a great deal more, but—"

"I'll see," he interrupted so quickly I was tempted to call him back and ask for more.

He was back in a moment.

"Yes, I can let you have $30," he said shortly. Then he gave me a yellow ticket and the money.

I almost ran from the place and back to the house. How hateful it all was—pawning for small amounts the things one loved, gifts! I had often read of such things, had heard that people were forced to part with their possessions in this way but that I, my father's daughter would ever be so situated was almost unbelievable.

That night when I told Mary what I had got for my ring she sniffed:

"I guess you didn't ask for any where near what he would have given you, or he wouldn't have been so awful quick about it. But never mind the interest won't be so big, and you'll know better next time." She took it for granted there would be a "next time."

"Oh, I never shall go there again."

"Oh, yes you will! they all does when they once starts. I never had nothing to pawn else I would have been there too. But I know lots of girls that has and once they begin they keep going."

I said no more, but I determined I would not "keep going"—that it was the last time as well as the first, I would never have been obliged to go had it not been for my fainting and so being robbed.

"Come on, Mary! We'll go and have a first-class feed to-night." I felt absolutely reckless. I had money in my purse again! Even if the purse was one of Mary's. We had steak, baked potatoes and rice pudding—a real feast for us. Afterward we went to a motion picture show in the neighborhood, Mary's treat.

As we left the show I heard a voice that made me shiver, at my elbow:

"How'd you like the show?" It was Mike, and at his side Joe shambled along.

I pretended not to hear.

"How'd you like the show, dearie?" he asked again plucking my sleeve.

"Very well," I answered so that he would not do anything more to attract the attention. Mary was back of me—two or three people had crowded between us so she had not heard nor seen.

"I'll take you home, Where's your pal?"

I looked wildly about for Mary. Just then she saw Mike and Joe and pushed her way to my side. Mike kept up a running talk until we reached the lobby. There Joe joined us, and also talked about "seeing us home." Mary quickly turned to the doorman:

"These two toughs are trying to get acquainted with us," she told him. "I'll see they don't do it any more!" he said, taking them by the arm.

"This is a decent place—the arm. Tomorrow—Work Again—For Eight Dollars."

GALLOWAY PROPERTY FAVORED AS SITE FOR NEW COUNTRY CLUB

The water works location on the Springfield pike, was turned down as a possible site for the new Country Club and the Galloway property on the Fairground road opposite the Fairgrounds, was practically decided upon at the picnic of those interested in the Country Club venture held at the water works Wednesday afternoon.

Seventy five people attended the picnic which was arranged in order to give those interested in the project an opportunity to look over the place as a possible site. Those attending brought basket lunches, and coffee, lemonade and ice cream were served by the committee, headed by Mrs. James A. Kelly, which committee was assisted by Jacob Kany.

Dr. R. Kent Finley, chairman of the site committee, made a report at the meeting favoring the Galloway property and on the vote requested by John W. Prugh, who acted as chairman of the meeting, the latter site was agreed upon. The picnicers were enthusiastic regarding the proposed club and the interest being shown is expected to mature in a real live organization very soon.

SANDUSKY VETERAN BELIEVES IN TELLING OTHERS OF GOOD RESULTS

"I am recommending Nerv-Worth to my friends," said Mr. Angstedt of the Soldiers Home, Sandusky, Ohio, "as I know it will help them. I was nervous and had rheumatism in my feet and legs so bad that I could hardly walk at times. My ankles were swollen and pained me very much. Nerv-Worth was recommended to me by a comrade and I have thanked him many times for doing it. I believe in passing the good news along and am sending a bottle to a comrade in Michigan." This man like thousands of others, has written a letter telling what Nerv-Worth does and what he thinks of it. Nerv-Worth gives excellent results in rheumatism and other nervous afflictions, because it acts in a sensible way. It is a well known fact that most cases of rheumatism are due to impurities in the blood and system, and the formation and presence of uric acid and other poisonous acids. Nerv-Worth is a wonderful neutralizer. It neutralizes these acids and thus makes them harmless and then drives them from the system. At the same time it does this, it straightens up the digestive system, aids nutrition, gives rich blood and nerve force. Because it does act in a sensible way as well as a scientific way to combat these ailments. Nerv-Worth for many years has been giving most remarkable results and because the manufacturers of Nerv-Worth know that it does do the work, it is sold on a money back guarantee. If you suffer give Nerv-Worth a good fair trial. Buy a bottle, use it according to directions, and after using it, if you have not noticed any effects and are not satisfied, your money will be refunded. Sold on a money back guarantee by Sayre & Hemphill and all leading druggists everywhere.

WHAT THE TREATY WITHOUT ARTICLE TEN WOULD DO FOR THE WORLD'S PEACE.

By Ex-President Taft.—Mr. Wilson's position in respect to the Treaty which he required the Democratic Convention to support and adopt and which Governor Cox expressly approved before the convention and must maintain, is that the reservation as to Article X "cut the League to pieces" and made it necessary to reject the League altogether. The Republican Senators who would have enabled Mr. Wilson to enter the League without Article X urged that the article bound the United States to use its military and naval forces to preserve the boundaries fixed in the Treaty for all the theatre of the war and would involve it in every future controversy in European politics.

The friends of the League of Nations must ask themselves in considering the issues of this campaign whether it is true that the elimination of Article X or its qualification so as to take out of it the obligations of the United States by force to preserve the boundaries of the Treaty left nothing in the League worth having.

Considering that this great war was the direct result of unrestricted competition in armament and that its cruel and destructive character was due to the enormous armaments thus compelled, it may be truly said that the limitation of armament provision is as important a provision of the League as it contains. So, too, the provision for submission and hearing of all controversies between nations before war is resorted to, secured by covenants of each member of the League and enforced by universal boycott and the outlawing of any covenant-breaking nation is most important, and if adopted would be a long step forward. Then, too, there was the open-diplomacy provision which Mr. Wilson had made so vital a matter in all his notes and messages.

A League of Nations with these three capital advances toward availing war, Mr. Wilson deliberately rejected when offered him by the Republican Senate; and now the Democratic Convention and Governor Cox tender the issue to the people of the United States whether he was right in so doing. With the certainty that if Governor Cox is elected the Republican Senators, who will have the power, will reject Article X and defeat the Treaty, can there be any doubt how a friend of an effective League of Nations should vote?

GOVERNOR COX STANDS SQUARELY WITH WILSON FAVORING "FOREIGN ENTANGLEMENTS" AS PER ARTICLE 10.

President Wilson's announcement after his interview with Governor Cox at the White House on Sunday, that he and the Democratic candidate were "absolutely at one" on the League of Nations, was precisely what might have been expected by any one familiar with the relations which have been maintained between the President and the Democratic leaders during the last seven years. The statement from the White House can have only one meaning, and that is the meaning which Senator Harding attaches to it, namely, that Mr. Wilson's position on the Treaty and the League has been accepted without reservations by Governor Cox, and that the campaign is to be fought—so far as the President can control matters—practically under his dictation.

In other words, the President with the assent of the candidate of the party will endeavor to make the fight on the Wilson issue alone and therefore for the acceptance of the Treaty, with Article X, as it was presented to the Senate. Meanwhile, Senator Harding has propounded some pertinent questions to his opponent which will call for explicit answers. The public will want to know precisely what being "in entire accord" with the President means, what Governor Cox understands is the present position of the President as to Article X, and finally what are the candidate's views on the many other questions of foreign policy to which President Wilson has sought to commit the nation.

If on all these matters the President and Governor Cox are "absolutely at one," the voters will at least know, after scanning the record of the votes in the Senate on the Treaty, that however complete is the accord between the President and the candidate NO SUCH ACCORD exists between the White House and those of the Democratic senators who were willing to vote for ratification, with reservations to Article X—"the heart of the Treaty."

THOSE WERE THE HAPPY DAYS

LACK OF PROVISION FOR EXPANSION OF CONCRETE CAUSES BROKEN CURBS; ACCOMPANYING PICTURES SHOW RESULT

Probably no one thing contributes more to failure of concrete structures, than changes of temperature, says City Manager Kenyon Riddle in connection with the attempt of the city to regulate sidewalk and curb construction to provide for expansion and thereby avoid broken curbs.

Concrete has the same coefficient of expansion as steel, says Mr. Riddle, which is 0.0000055 per one degree Fahrenheit which in this climate where the change of temperature varies at least 100 degrees, a slab of concrete 100 feet long will result in changes of length of over one half an inch.

This may not be considered a serious thing but when one imagines a force strong enough to cause a slab of concrete 100 feet long to elongate one-half inch it is easy to realize destruction from such a force.

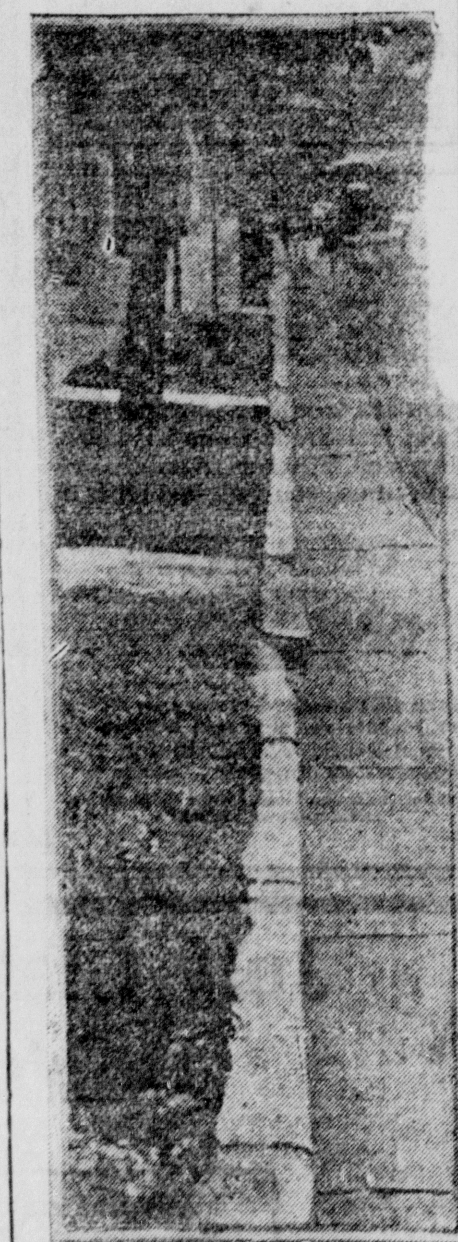

The accompanying pictures are of streets in Xenia, the upper picture being taken on West Market street near the Standard Oil Filling station near the city building, and the lower picture in front of Kennedy's grocery on East Main street near the post office building.

The picture show curbs that have been broken off by expansion of the sidewalks leading to the curbs. Heat has caused elongation in the sidewalks and the pressure was effective at the curb, causing the destruction shown in the cuts.

There is true cause to be concerned when it is realized that several thousand dollars worth of such damage exists over Xenia while one hundred dollars would have saved such damage.

As that need be done to eliminate such damage is to make simple provision for such expansion. This is accomplished best by leaving a free, open joint between the sidewalks approach and the curb and then fill the joint with asphalt which serves as a cushion. The cost of this joint in place is ten cents a foot or for any of the sidewalk approaches to the curb an expense of fifty cents will save the damage. It will cost $10 to properly repair any one of such places as shown in the accompanying cuts.

The city has now adopted specifications which protect cement work from damage due to expansion and with the co-operation of all persons doing cement work the property owners can be saved from such unsightly conditions exist over town due to no provision for expansion. If all property owners living within the new paving district will help the city in enforcing the specifications

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I don't know anyone else to ask about things, and so if you don't care I will write to you once again. I don't want to be cheeky and bother you too much.

I have been going to night school about three months now. I like it but it is slow work and hard to keep awake sometimes, and the teachers don't like that, but I am going to keep on.

The folks have been fair about my board money so far. I am getting $20 a week now with my bonus, and I have made pretty near $5 extra some weeks for overtime and I have saved $60. Since I got new clothes I have gone a lot of places, to concerts and church and "sings" and the library. The more places I go the more I get to hating my home. I just can't help it.

When I see how nice other folks are and then go home to a shabby house full of kids I feel as if I had rather be shot than stay until I am twenty-one. I don't suppose you can know how I want to get away. I stay out as long as I can and just go home to sleep and eat. They always let me know what they need just as if I was a bank and they set the kids up to teasing me for money. It makes me feel mean, for they don't have much, but I think I have a right to what I earn when I pay board. They keep nagging me and saying I have "high falutin'" ideas. That is because I dress up after supper and try to look neat like the other fellows at school.

Please tell me since I can make $20 a week here if I can do the same some other place, and could I live on it. I haven't ever been to any other city, but I know it costs lots. Where could a fellow go when he can't afford a good hotel, and is there any one to go to that will help a fellow to find a good job? I was going to ask the lady at the library but I can never find her any more.

My sister said she wrote to you. I wouldn't have let her if I knew. She told me what she wrote and I want to say that if she has to stay home I will give her some money to spend, for she has been the best kid in the bunch to me, and if I go I will send her some if I can.

I read that letter a lady wrote about me a long time ago in your part of the paper. She was nice and I would like to thank her, only I think she kind of pitted me, and I don't want any pity. I didn't write for that, and I was glad you didn't give me any of that.

Matthew lost his four-year-old sister quite a long time ago and he doesn't seem to get over it. She was a cripple anyhow, and I don't see how he can care so much. I wish I could care like that, but I can't. Am I mean?

It seems to me that it would be a good thing for you to try life away from home. There is a Y. M. C. A. in almost all cities of any size where you could get advice and assistance in finding work and where you could also live. Before taking any definite step, talk to the local Y. M. C. A. and they will probably be of great help to you in deciding what to do. If you want definite advice from me regarding a place to go I will have to write to you personally.

Since your parents have been so reasonable about your board, I think that you owe them the courtesy of talking over the change. Wait until you know what you want to do and tell them. If it means more money and better opportunities they will doubtless be willing to have you leave.

I was glad to get your sister's letter and cannot see why you didn't want her to write. Your sister is a fine little girl and with help from you can make you proud some day. Try to bring as much joy as possible into her life. She would enjoy going places with you.

Tell Matthew that I am very sorry to learn of his great sorrow. It is his loss and the little sister's gain. Of course I wanted to keep her, but since she was crippled life here did not hold much brightness for her. Your lack of love is a great deal imaginary. Right now you are bitter and can only see the sordidness of your home life. Some day you will look back with thoughts of love for your mother and every member of your family. Don't think I am scolding you. Your attitude is only human since you have so little to make you happy and so much that is depressing and disagreeable.

INJURY SUSTAINED BY KICK IS FATAL

As a result of internal injuries sustained when he was kicked in the abdomen by a horse last Sunday, James H. Brush, a farmer living five miles south of Xenia, died at the McClellan hospital at 4 o'clock Thursday morning. An operation which was performed Tuesday night, failed to relieve his condition.

Mr. Brush was 51 years of age. He moved to Greene county from Waverly two years ago, and with his family made his home on the Lewis Anderson farm in the Caesar's creek neighborhood. He is survived by his wife, Millie, and eight children: Mrs. Grace Lakey of near Xenia; Mrs. Iva Robinson of Columbus; Lawrence, Gertrude, Forest, Ora, Opal and Ralph at home. He has a brother in Oklahoma, and a sister in Kentucky.

The body was taken in charge by undertaker E. M. Noeld and removed to the home where funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 o'clock.

CERTAIN BILLY DANSEY IS NOT IN CLEVELAND

To Frank Cushing we owe most of our knowledge of the Indian tribes of the southwest and of the remarkable civilization they built up long ago. Cushing was born in Erie County, Pa., but was brought up in a little town in New York. The country around him was rich in Indian relics, and it was during his childhood that he developed the one great passion of his life—which was to know everything possible about the Indians.

At 15 he started the scientific world by discovering the method by which Indians had made their arrowheads. He did it by becoming as nearly as possible an Indian himself, living the sort of life they led and working out their problems with the material at hand in the forests.

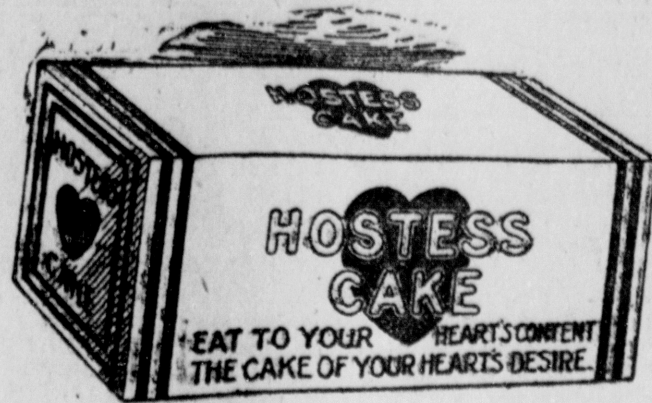

He used this method all his life. When he went to New Mexico to study the Zuni Indians, he lived with them for three years, adopting their costume, learning their language and, eventually, being made a member of their tribe. He went with some of them on an expedition to the Atlantic to get some water from the "Ocean of Sunrise." The party of chiefs were taken through all the eastern cities and entertained lavishly.

Cushing wrote many books about the old Indian civilization and kept some of the Zuni chiefs with him to help him. He excavated some of the buried cities of the "lost Others," as the Zunis called the mysterious unknown tribes who built up their civilization.

BETTY K. IS WINNER AT BEREA WEDNESDAY

Betty K., the three year old trotter owned by R. S. Kingsbury of this city, took her second race in two weeks at Berea Wednesday winning the three year old in straight heats.

"Speck" Erskine, in whose stable the local filly is being raced now, was up behind the trotter. Erskine did not drive her last week when she won, owing to having his stable at Toledo, and Ben Whiteside won the first race of the season with her. The three year old at Berea carried a $500 purse.

Lady Carolyn of the Erskine stable, was second and Fred Jones finished third. The time was 2:19 1-4; 2:19 1-2 and 2:18 3-4. This is the Great race which has been the excitement of the season, the first in the history of harness racing, paying $900 for one ticket purchased for him to win. He finished third in the race which Dai Spencer won. In the 2:17 trot Little Grove came out on top, while Max Moran finished first in the 2:19 pace and George Volo in the 2:11 pace.

DOWNNEY & SCHEPPERT FIGHT 12 ROUND DRAW

Xenia people saw Bryan Downey, of Columbus, and Ralph Scheppert, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., fight twelve rounds to a draw as the headliner on the Miami Athletic Club's card at Dayton, Wednesday night.

One of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a boxing match at Dayton was present for the show in which they got plenty of action for their money, the fight being fiercely fought especially through the latter part. Downey, who has been cutting a wide swathe in these parts, met his match in Scheppert, who fought the much touted Columbus boxer at his own game, forcing the going and keep the fighting on the ropes.

Young Webb, of Dayton, was given the decision over Dave Franby of Cincinnati, in the eight round semi-final, while Mutt Snyder, of Cincinnati was given the decision over Kid McManus, of Dayton in the four round preliminary.
